

You may be interested in following the Gender/Sexuality Academic Funding Opportunities blog, which posts jobs, fellowships, grants, internships in gender and sexuality studies/service/activism. It's run by Sarah Tuohey, Student Affairs Administrator at the Center for the Study of Gender and Sexuality at the University of Chicago. Most of the postings seem to be US-based.

You may also find the Academic Jobs Wiki website helpful. It lists Academic Networking and Job Resources, Non-Academic Career Resources, and jobs for the Application Year 2016-2017 by field. I've excerpted some links you may find useful, but please go to the Academic Jobs Wiki website for the full list.

- Academic Networking and Job Resources:

<http://www.AcademicCareers.com> - a global university job site used by colleges and universities to advertise teaching jobs, education jobs, professor jobs, faculty jobs.
